Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-8, drawn to a method of making a fiber, classified in class 264, subclass 172.1+.
- II. Claims 9-15, drawn to a method of making a nonwoven, classified in class 156, subclass various.

If group I is elected, applicant is required to elect a single disclosed species under 35 U.S.C 121 for claim 5.

- III. Claims 16-21, drawn to a crimped fiber, classified in class 428, subclass 373.

If group III is elected Applicant is under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for claims 18 and 19.

- IV. Claims 22-26, drawn to a nonwoven web, classified in class 442, subclass 327+

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because:

Inventions Group I and III are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make other and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case the product as claimed can be made by a materially different process such as providing, treating, winding.

Inventions Group III and Group IV are related as mutually exclusive species in an intermediate-final product relationship. Distinctness is proven for claims in this relationship if the intermediate product is useful to make other than the final product (MPEP § 806.04(b), 3rd paragraph), and the species are patentably distinct (MPEP § 806.04(h)). In the instant case, the intermediate product is deemed to be useful as a tow or a yarn and the inventions are deemed patentably distinct since there is nothing on this record to show them to be obvious variants. Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions anticipated by the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Inventions Group II and IV are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make other and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case the product as claimed can be made by a materially different process such as spinning, extruding, quenching, treating cutting, carding, and bonding.

A telephone call was made to Robert Ambrose on 5/3/2004 and 5/6/2004 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Mr. Ambrose requested a written requirement for restriction.
